

IM Events Center – General Info

What is the IM Events Center?

The IM Events Center is owned by Interfaith Ministries for Greater Houston. It provides event and meeting spaces to accommodate between 10 and 150 people.

Where is the IM Events Center?

The IM Events Center is located in Interfaith Ministries' Herzstein building at 3303 Main Street in the heart of Midtown Houston. The center is two blocks south of Elgin near the Ensemble Theater/HCC MetroRail stop.

Who is eligible to use the IM Events Center?

IM welcomes corporate, nonprofit, professional, and social events.

What kind of events cannot be scheduled in the IM Events Center?

- Press and Media Events not pre-approved by IM.
- Political Activities concerning local, county, state, or national public office.
- Public Forums.
- Public Job Fairs.
- Political Fundraisers.

What is the cost to hold an event?

Please contact us for a complete fee schedule.

What is required to hold an event at the IM Events Center?

Please contact us for a list of required documents.

How large is the IM Events Center?

The IM Events Center has several spaces ranging in size from 280 to 2700 square feet. Groups up to 150 people can be accommodated.

What can IM provide for my event?

IM offers a limited supply of equipment and furnishings, including audio/video equipment and tables/chairs. Full service catering is coordinated through our preferred caterer M \acute{e} lange.

How do I make reservations and get more information?

To get started, please complete the form on the IM Events Center main page.